Basic Information

- The offer applies to civil, religious and symbolic wedding ceremonies, as well as registered partnership ceremonies.
- Wedding ceremonies do not include the provision of an officiant. The date of a civil ceremony must be reserved through the Registry Office of the Municipal District Prague 2.
- In the case of wedding ceremonies held in the Vyšehrad parks, it is not possible to close the area to the public.
- A limited number of parking spaces is available within the Vyšehrad complex.

Rental Terms and Conditions

- The stated prices are indicative and serve as a basis for individual calculation.
- The rental period includes time for preparation of the ceremony, the ceremony itself, and restoring the space to its original condition. Any extension beyond the agreed rental period is possible only by prior arrangement.
- The rental fee includes basic supervision provided by the lessor. For larger or more technically demanding events, extended supervision may be required.
- Based on an individual calculation, additional services may be arranged, in particular catering, accompanying programmes, or extended technical equipment and furniture.
- The organisation reserves the right to assess the suitability of the event with regard to the character of the national cultural monument.
